God is the Creator of time and space. He sees both the beginning and the end. He is Timeless!

Hebrews 13:8 (NKJV)

8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

Pray

Christ has always been identified with the Word of God!

Yesterday

Genesis 1:1 - 3 (NKJV)

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth 2 The earth was without form, and void; and darkness was on the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters. 3 Then God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light.

The Angel of the Lord
Angel means "messenger." Thus the Angel of the Lord would deliver the Word of God.

In Genesis the Angel of the Lord met with Abraham on Mt. Sinai. In Exodus the Angel of the Lord appeared to Moses from the burning bush. In Numbers the Angel of the Lord stood before disobedient Balaam. In Judges He spoke to disobedient Israel in the Promised Land standing next to Joshua, appeared to Gideon as he threshed grain in a winepress, and ascended in the altar flame before Manoah. In 2 Samuel He watched as David bought the land that would become Jerusalem. In Second Kings the Angel of the Lord spoke with Elijah. In Zechariah the prophet saw Him in a vision standing among the myrtle trees and opposing Satan on behalf of Joshua the high priest.

Thus throughout the Old Testament God spoke His Word through Christ as the Angel, or Messenger, of the Lord.

Four hundred years the heavens were silent. The Bible records no message from heaven and the world was in darkness. God had a remnant that looked for God, but mostly man grew further and further from Him.

The first word that breaks centuries of silence from heaven is not that of Christ. It is the voice of Gabriel that informs that Mary would bear a Child of the Holy Spirit. It was “an angel of the Lord” that broke the news to lowly shepherds of the birth of a Savior.

John is the first to link the Word of God in the Old Testament to the birth of Jesus.

John 1:14 (NKJV)

14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

The officers of the Temple said, John 7:46 (NKJV)

46 "No man ever spoke like this Man!"

After 3 ½ years of ministry the Word was crucified. For three days the world returned as it was for the 400 years prior to the birth of Jesus. Heaven was both silent and dark.

That was Friday but Sunday’s coming!

Today

Christ still speaks for us in the presence of the Father.

Romans 8:34 (NKJV)

34 Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, and furthermore is also risen, who is even at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us.

Hebrews 4:16 (NKJV)

16 Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Forever

1 Thessalonians 4:16-17 (NKJV)

16 For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. 17 Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord.

The word “shout” is “a loud command.” Since this is associated with the Feast of Trumpets I believe the command is “time to come home!”
